

KAMAN CORPORATION FINANCE COMMITTEE CHARTER

(As approved by the Board of Directors on November 15, 2021)

Organization: There shall be a Finance Committee (the “Committee”) which shall consist of at least three directors who shall be elected annually by, and serve at the discretion of, the Board and shall (i) not be currently employed by the Company, and (ii) be free of any relationship which, in the opinion of the Board of Directors, would interfere with the exercise of independent judgment.<sup>1</sup> The Committee shall meet at such times as are deemed advisable by the Chair of the Committee, but not less than twice per year.

The Chair of the Committee shall be designated annually. The Secretary shall prepare each meeting agenda with input and direction from the Chair and record the minutes of its meetings. A report of the Committee regarding each meeting, with recommendations for action, when appropriate, shall be presented at the next regularly scheduled Board meeting following each Committee meeting.

The Committee shall have the authority to conduct any investigation appropriate to fulfilling its responsibilities and to retain special legal, accounting or other consultants or experts it deems necessary in the performance of its duties, all at the Company’s expense.

Responsibilities: The Committee shall assist the Board in fulfilling the Board’s oversight responsibilities regarding matters of a material financial nature, including those relating to (i) annual and long-range operating plans; (ii) significant financing programs and material debt issuances; (iii) significant acquisitions and divestitures; (iv) capital allocation strategies; (v) significant information technology and business transformation strategies and projects; (vi) interest rate, commodity and currency hedging transactions and the investment of excess cash reserves; (vii) insurance-related risk management programs; (viii) administration of tax-qualified defined contribution and defined benefit plans; and (ix) such other matters as the Board may deem appropriate.

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Committee shall have the following specific powers and responsibilities:

- Review and approve the Company’s annual operating and long-range strategic plans from the perspective of profit/loss, funds flow, capital spending and

---

<sup>1</sup> SEC Rule 16b-3 defines a “non-employee” director as a person who: is not currently an officer of the Company (or a parent or subsidiary thereof); does not receive significant direct or indirect compensation from the Company for any services performed other than services as a director; and has no interest in any significant transactions or business relationships with the Company. The New York Stock Exchange also promulgates rules and regulations regarding director independence, as set forth in the Board’s Corporate Governance Principles, as amended.

financing requirements, and submit such plans, together with the Committee's recommendation thereon, for final approval by the full Board.

- Review and approve significant financing programs and material debt issuances requiring Board approval, including but not limited to credit facilities, securities offerings, secured and unsecured corporate borrowings, equity investments, letters of credit and guarantees, and submit such financing programs and debt issuances, together with the Committee's recommendation thereon, for final approval by the full Board.
- Review and approve proposed acquisitions or divestitures that exceed transaction levels for which the Board has delegated authority to management (each of which shall be deemed to be a significant acquisition or divestiture for purposes of this Charter) and submit such acquisitions and divestitures, together with the Committee's recommendation thereon, for final approval by the full Board.
- To the extent practicable, review and discuss with management the financial performance of each significant acquisition annually for a period not less than three years following the effective date of such acquisition, and report such information to the full Board.
- Periodically review and discuss with management the Company's capital allocation strategy, including without limitation the timing and amount of dividends payable on the capital stock of the Company and the size, scope and duration of stock repurchase programs (it being understood that any proposed changes to such programs shall be submitted to, and approved by, the full Board).
- Review and discuss with management significant information technology and business transformation strategies and projects, including without limitation (i) the design, acquisition and implementation of enterprise-wide resource planning systems and software and (ii) the outsourcing of information technology functions.
- Periodically review with management's Pension Administrative Committee the performance of the Kaman Corporation Thrift and Retirement Plan and the Kaman Corporation Employees' Pension Plan, including specifically the financial performance of each plan's investment managers and, in the case of the pension plan, compliance with the investment policy; review and approve actuarial assumptions and methods to be employed by the actuaries for the pension plan; review and approve additions or terminations of subsidiaries to the plan; and oversee the plans' compliance with the requirements of applicable laws and regulations, including ERISA.
- Periodically review the Company's risk management program from an insurance coverage and liability perspective.

- Periodically review and discuss with management: (i) the Company's relationship with its lenders and compliance with significant financing agreements, including material debt covenants; (ii) the Company's credit ratings and activities with respect to credit rating agencies; and (iii) the nature and extent of significant foreign currency positions, if any.
- Periodically review and approve the Company's policies and procedures on hedging, swaps, security-based swaps, derivatives, foreign currency exchange risk and debt and interest rate risk, all of which shall be managed by or under the direction of the Company's Treasurer, unless specified otherwise.
- Periodically review and approve the Company's policies and procedures relating to the investment of the Company's excess cash reserves, excluding operating cash and bank accounts.
- Periodically, but not less than annually, review and approve, on a general or a case-by-case basis, the Company's decision to enter into swaps and other derivative transactions that are exempt from exchange-execution and clearance under the "end- user exception" set forth in the Dodd-Frank Act and any applicable regulations established by the Commodity Futures Trading Commission.
- Periodically, but not less than annually, review the Committee's performance and reassess the adequacy of the Charter of the Committee, submitting any recommended changes for Board approval.

Other: The Committee will perform such other activities consistent with this Charter, the Company's Bylaws, governing law, the rules and regulations of the New York Stock Exchange and such other requirements applicable to the Company as the Committee or the Board deems necessary or appropriate or such duties as are delegated by the Board from time to time.

The Committee shall have the authority to delegate any of its responsibilities, along with the authority to take action in relation to such responsibilities, to one or more subcommittees as the Committee may deem appropriate in its sole discretion.